

I am very disapointed in something that was on Comedy Central on 3/16/04. In a sketch on crank yankers a picture of Jesus' face was shown in a babies diaper. This is offensive and crosses the line. I enjoy tv,however I am quite concerned about sexual content,language, and violence. I am wondering what can be done(if anything?) about this trend. Just because something is on "cable" does not give them the right to be graphic. Thank you--- heath
